16. In the Fourth Schedule to the principal Act, for the brackets, words and figures “[See section 11 (14)]”, the brackets, words, figures and letter “[See section 11 (3A)]” shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (the said Act) was enacted to consolidate and amend the law relating to domestic arbitration, international commercial arbitration and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards and also to define the law relating to conciliation and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. The said Act was amended by the Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Act, 2015 to make arbitration process cost effective, speedy, with minimum court intervention.

2. The promotion of the institutional arbitration in India by strengthening Indian arbitral institutions has been identified critical to the dispute resolution through arbitration. Though arbitral institutions have been working in India, they have not been preferred by parties, who have leaned in favour of ad hoc arbitration or arbitral institutions located abroad. Therefore, in order to identify the roadblocks to the development of institutional arbitration, examine specific issues affecting the Indian arbitration landscape and also to prepare a road map for making India a robust centre for institutional arbitration both domestic and international, the Central Government constituted a High Level Committee under the Chairmanship of Justice B. N. Srikrishna, Former Judge of the Supreme Court of India.

3. The terms of reference of the Committee, inter alia, include,—

(a) to examine the effectiveness of existing arbitration mechanism by studying the functioning and performance of arbitral institutions in India;

(b) to devise a road map to promote institutional arbitration mechanisms in India; and

(c) to evolve an effective and efficient arbitration eco-system for commercial dispute resolution and suggest reforms in the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

4. The High Level Committee submitted its Report on 30th July, 2017. With a view to strengthen institutional arbitration in the country, the said Committee, inter alia, recommended for the establishment of an independent body for grading of arbitral institutions and accreditation of arbitrators, etc. The Committee has also recommended certain amendments to the said Act to minimise the need to approach the Courts for appointment of arbitrators. After examination of the said recommendations with a view to make India a hub of institutional arbitration for both domestic and international arbitration, it was decided to amend the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

5. Accordingly, a Bill, namely, the Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Bill, 2018 was introduced in Lok Sabha on the 18th July, 2018 and was passed by that House on the 10th August, 2018 and was pending in Rajya Sabha. However, the Sixteenth Lok Sabha was dissolved and the Bill got lapsed. Hence, the present Bill, namely, the Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Bill, 2019.

6. The salient features of the Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Bill, 2019, inter alia, are as follows:—

(i) to amend section 11 of the Act relating to "Appointment of Arbitrators" so as to change the present system of appointment of arbitrators by the Supreme Court or High Court, to a system where the arbitrators shall be appointed by the "arbitral institutions" designated by the Supreme Court or High Court;

(ii) in case where no graded arbitral institutions are available, the Chief Justice of the concerned High Court may maintain a panel of arbitrators for discharging the functions and duties of arbitral institutions;

(iii) to insert a new Part 1A to the Act for the establishment and incorporation of an independent body namely, the Arbitration Council of India for the purpose of grading of arbitral institutions and accreditation of arbitrators, etc.;

(iv) to amend section 23 of the Act relating to "Statement of claim and defence" so as to provide that the statement of claim and defence shall be completed within a period of six months from the date the arbitrator receives the notice of appointment;

(v) to provide that the arbitrator, the arbitral institutions and the parties shall maintain confidentiality of information relating to arbitral proceedings and also protect the arbitrator or arbitrators from any suit or other legal proceedings for any action or omission done in good faith in the course of arbitration proceedings; and

(vi) to clarify that section 26 of the Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Act, 2015, is applicable only to the arbitral proceedings which commenced on or after 23rd October, 2015 and to such court proceedings which emanate from such arbitral proceedings.

7. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.
